Private Parties Have Proven Popular

Private events at LFG Games are really taking off. Recently LFG hosted a whole evening for 8 friends who spent the night gaming and eating pizza. One evening was reserved for the 8th Pickering Scout Troop, who spent a noisy several hours working together as a team to defend the world against terrorists in Counterstrike. Two more evenings in February are already reserved for very special birthday parties. Check out our party rates on the website, they are extremely competitive. Giving your buddies LFG Gift Certificates as a birthday present is making some people really happy too!
